Sparkling Wine and Champagne

France

Bollinger NV Brut Special Cuvee, *France 100.00

Created in 1911, the Special Cuvee is the purest expression of the Bollinger Style; of its craftsmanship and singular conception of what Champagne should be.

2004 Dom Perignon, *France 225.00

A cuvee of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir made in the famous Methode Champenoise, style to create the pinnacle of all Champagne

G.H. Mumm NV Brut Cordon Rouge, *France 75.00

Long aging provides flavors of vanilla, roasted nuts and a hint of toast to the blending of this Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier. The red stripe on the label is recognized around the world as a symbol of one of the best France has to offer.

Moet & Chandon White Star, *France 78.00

Made by the producers of Dom Perignon, this extra dry Champagne is fruity and will be enjoyable to all.

Split 23.00

Sparkling Wine and Champagne

Spain

Freixenet Cordon Negro Brut, *Spain 24.95

This sparkling wine is dry and crisp, clean and refreshing.

Split 6.95

Marques de Gelida Brut-Cava, *Spain 29.00

A terrific value in sparkling wine, this blend of four grapes is crisp and dry with notes of honeysuckle and a bright citrusy finish.

Zonin Prosecco, *Italy split 6.95

Aromatic and crisp, bringing to mind yellow apple, and pear

Mumm Napa Blanc de Noirs, *California 38.00

Please do not be deceived by the delicate salmon pink color of this wine. It starts with a delicious cherry aroma from the predominance of Pinot Noir in the blend, but the addition of Chardonnay gives it structure and great depth of flavor. It can take on the spicy or hot dishes, or heartier fare that a more shy and retiring sparkler might be lost with. This is a nice choice for either surf or turf – or both!

Roederer Estate NV Brut, *Anderson Valley 40.00

The first California sparkling wine produced by Champagne Louis Roederer builds upon a 200 year wine-making tradition. This is one of California's premier producers, made from only estate grown grapes, a portion of which have been aged in French oak and added to the blend, creating a multi-vintage cuvee with body, finesse and depth of style.

Schramsberg Blanc de Blancs, *North Coast, California      ½ Bottle      29.95

Fresh aromas of green apple, juicy pineapple and ripe grapefruit, accented by a slight minerality on the finish.
